Product Description:

Cable Lugs are an integral part of electrical systems. They connect wires and cables to electrical devices or equipment, thus providing an important link in the power system of any home or business.

Tube Lugs are metal connectors that hold wires securely in place. With a range of sizes and shapes available, Tube Lugs can be tailored to suit any type of terminal or wire gauge.

These Metal Connectors are easy to use and provide a reliable link in the wiring of any electrical system. They are also highly durable and can handle a range of tasks, making them a great choice for any home or business.

Applications:

TLC TLK Tubular Cable Lugs are manufactured from high-quality copper and feature a tin plated finish. Designed for a cable range of 2.5-10mm2, they are suitable for a wide range of applications and can withstand conditions from -40 to +105 . With a minimum order of 1000 pcs, they are packaged in cartons and shipped within 5-30 days. The silver color of these wire lugs and copper tube lugs provides a sleek, modern aesthetic.

TLC TLK Tubular Cable Lugs are perfect for industrial, automotive, and electrical applications. The tin plating on these lugs cable ensures superior corrosion resistance and maximum conductivity. This makes them ideal for use in areas with harsh environmental conditions, as well as in high-voltage systems.

These durable lugs cable are suitable for a wide range of wiring projects and are easy to install. They are designed to ensure a strong, reliable connection, and are perfect for use in exposed or concealed applications. They are also available in a variety of sizes and configurations, making them a perfect choice for any wiring project.
